NOTES

Cookery

Jenny is back.

British Drama

Probus village Hall is unavailable because of the pantomime, so we'll reconvene in March.

Local History

Because of its strategic importance Cornwall has some of the earliest detailed maps of any county. We'll look at the work of Christopher Saxton, Joel Gascoyne and John Ogilby and also the revolution in map-making techniques in the sixteenth century, Because Tregony church hall is being redecorated the hall in the Bible Christian Chapel has been kindly made available.

Monthly Meeting

On Monday 19th February the speaker will be Matt Slater from Cornwall Wildlife Trust who will describe the work of the Marine Team, including some interesting underwater finds.

Margaret's Meander

This month Margaret will be heading to Bodmin Jail. The Prison Tour costs £8.50 concessions and £10 full price. No charge is made for entry to the gift shop, tea room and the outer areas. Access to some areas are difficult if mobility is a problem. Meet Margaret at 10.30am in the Tea Room for a cuppa; you can decide then just how much you want to explore further!

Italian Conversation

The first lesson is on St Valentine's Day. Wonder what they do in Italy.

Luncheon Club

Meet at the Hewas Inn, Sticker, at noon for 12.30 pm.

Card Games

Note the date of the February meeting: Friday 16th.

Wood Turning (New)

The wood turning class is all ready to go but Valerie is still waiting for all likely attendees to indicate their preference for the time and venue. The current options are for Probus in the morning on a Monday or a Tuesday or possibly a Thursday. Equipment will be provided. The wood turners advise that the first meeting should take the form of a demo by them and a try-out by us. Can those who are interested in this course please e-mail or phone Val Willcox (01726 884176) with their preferred venue and time.

French Class (New)

Some members would like to start a French class but we have hitherto been handicapped by an inability to find someone willing to lead the group. One proposal is to have a class using DVDs and films rather than asking a tutor to construct a course. If you would be interested in joining such a group please let me know. Once we have an idea of the likely demand we can determine the venue, timing and frequency.

Art/Water-colouring

There are two meetings this month – on the 5th and the 26th – in the Bible Christian Chapel in Tregony.
