NOTES

British Drama

J M Barrie didn't just write "Peter Pan" but he also wrote about life set in his home town in north east Scotland. "The Little Minister" was written as a book and then as a play and deals with the love between a rather prim clergyman and a free-spirited gypsy girl, against a background of the upheavals caused by industrialisation in the early Victorian period. The mysterious gypsy girl is played by a youthful Helen Mirren.

Local History

Hazel Harradence is back for a talk this month on the Luxulyan Valley. The valley played a significant part in Cornwall's early industrial history. A great deal remains of this period, including the railway viaduct. The whole area is wooded, beautiful and often neglected by tourists.

Cookery and Knitting

Jenny is on holiday this month. Normal service will resume in November.

Monthly Meeting

October's Meeting includes a talk by Andrea Vallance on Treatment for Acute and Chronic Pain - Feel better. Move better. Naturally. Andrea offers musculoskeletal treatments for natural pain relief and will explain what she does and how she can be of service. Based in St Mawes, she also offers mobile treatments - check out her website www.andreavallance.com for more information.

Margaret's Meander

On October 16th Margaret will be heading to the Cornish Birds of Prey Centre at Winnards Perch, St Columb (on the A39). Admission is £7 for seniors, £8.00 for non-seniors. Flying displays are held at 11.30am and 2pm; undercover areas are available so any rain won't spoil the day! Margaret will be in Ollies Snack Shack there at 11am.

Italian Conversation

Join us for conversation in frequently stumbling, infrequently fluent but always enthusiastic Italian with a native Italian speaker. Much laughter guaranteed!

Luncheon Club

The venue this month is The Hewas Inn, Sticker.

Card Games

Back later in the year when the days draw in and we are glad of some indoor entertainment.

Computer Class (New)

Christine is starting a new computer group, meeting on the morning of the third Thursday in the month in the library at Roseland Parc. The second session is on Thursday, October 18th. Some members have already expressed an interest. Please contact Christine by email (cma22168@gmail.com) or telephone (01872 275159) if you would like to discuss further.

Wood Turning

This course is proving a great success and the next meeting is on September 24th, starting at 9:00am. Valerie will agree the October meeting and let members know later.

If you haven't already expressed an interest in this course please e-mail or phone Val Willcox (01726 884176).
